General Remarks

East Manywells Farmhouse is a gorgeous period property which has been beautifully restored and modernised by its current owners to create a fabulous, contemporary stylish home which boasts a wonderful modern twist to characterful old bones. Enjoying exquisite far-reaching views, beautifully landscaped gardens, private equestrian facilities, and a fabulous rural setting, viewing of this tremendous home is a must, as it has so much to offer a discerning buyer.

The stunning, spacious living accommodation briefly comprises, entrance hallway with internal lobby. Family lounge with feature fireplace, formal dining room, contemporary dining kitchen with stylish wall and base units, complementary work surfaces, feature island and a range of top of the range integral appliances. There is a spacious sitting/family room, a good-sized home office, a large utility room with cloakroom w/c and access to a quirky wine cellar/store.

To the first floor a signature en-suite master bedroom with feature beams can be found. There are four further double bedrooms, as well as a bespoke house bathroom with both separate shower and bath facility.

Externally the property offers private parking, and a double garage with adjoining workshop. Beautiful landscaped lawn gardens flow around the property which boast colourful shrubs, borders and leafy hedgerow, and complementary patio seating areas make for wonderful relaxation and entertaining spaces.

The farmhouse sits within a superb plot which is approximately four acres. Within the additional land is a fully serviced stable block, a fantastic horse menage arena, and a delightful growers garden.

East Manywells Farmhouse is situated in a rural setting conveniently placed on the edge of Cullingworth village and enjoys breath taking panoramic views. The village itself offers a wide variety of local amenities and popular schools as too does the nearby main market town Bingley which is well serviced by excellent shops and amenities, rail commuter links and well regarded schools.
