A charming double-fronted Edwardian detached family home, situated on one of Staines upon Thames most sought-after tree-lined residential roads, just a short walk from the town centre, excellent local schools and superb transport links.

This imposing period property offers a wonderful blend of character and space, with a well-maintained and sophisticated interior that retains many original Edwardian features throughout. The accommodation comprises four bedrooms, three reception rooms, three bathrooms, a utility room and a versatile annexe, which benefits from separate front access and offers excellent flexibility for extended family, home working or additional income potential.

The house is ideally suited to growing families, providing both longevity and scope for further extension or remodeling, subject to the usual planning permissions. Outside, the generous rear garden is ideal for family life and entertaining, and has an outbuilding for storage. The large in-and-out driveway provides off-street parking for multiple vehicles and sets the property back from the road.

This is a rare opportunity to acquire a truly special forever home in an exceptionally convenient and highly desirable location.
