North Drive

Ruislip • Middlesex • HA4 8EZ

Positioned on the prestigious and highly sought after North Drive, this impressive four bedroom detached residence represents a rare opportunity to acquire a true piece of local history. As one of the original homes constructed in Ruislip during the 1920s, the property is dripping in period character and timeless charm. Held as a cherished family home by the current owners since 1971, the house immediately captures attention with its striking facade, classic brickwork arch detailing, garage, and a generous paved driveway offering ample off street parking.

Inside, the extensive layout offers wonderful flexibility for modern family life, featuring three reception areas, a ground floor office, an entertaining bar area, and a large fitted kitchen. The first floor boasts well-proportioned bedrooms alongside dedicated library and study spaces, perfect for home working or quiet relaxation. Outside, the home opens up to a magnificent rear garden featuring an expansive paved terrace overlooking beautifully manicured grounds and mature greenery. Homes of this caliber on North Drive are exceptionally rare to the market, making an internal viewing an absolute must.
